

Nurture

Edited by J.S. Smith for the Wonsley Worker, 4 June 2000

ACROSS CLUES

- 2 These vine dressing implements could be beaten into weapons.
- 3 God would pour this out on all flesh, causing them to prophesy.
- 5 This is the third kind of locust to trouble the Jews' crops.
- 6 This insect was responsible for the crop failure in Judah.
- 11 This special time of destruction was at hand, according to Joel
- 12 Joel told them to awake and weep because of the new wine.
- 13 Whoever calls on the name of the Lord would be saved, finding this as part of God's remnant.
- 16 This is the first kind of locust to trouble the Jews' crops.
- 17 These weapons are worn at the side and swung like long knives.
- 18 These farm implements could be beaten into weapons.
- 21 Joel told them to gird themselves and lament as they

DOWN CLUES

- 1 The nations were to awake and come to this valley.
- 4 This is the fourth kind of locust to trouble the Jews' crops.
- 7 Blowing this served as a warning to the inhabitants of Jerusalem.
- 8 Instead of rending their hearts in repentance, the people were just rending these instead.
- 9 Behind them was a desolate wilderness, but before them the land was like this place.
- 10 Repentance would cause God to feel this way toward his land and people.
- 11 The sun would be turned to this under Joel's prophecy.
- 14 This is another word for Jerusalem.
- 15 This nation that once held Israel captive would be desolated by Joel's prophecy.
- 16 God would bring back this group from their imprisonment elsewhere.
- 19 These weapons are like javelins.
- 20 This sister nation of Judah would become a

The Prophecy of Joel
Crossword
Puzzle